

Beginning Sentences with a Clause

Combine the two sentences. Turn one of the sentences into a dependent clause, and place it at the beginning of your sentence. Use a conjunction such as if, although, when, or until. Place a comma after the dependent clause.

1. The football team ran onto the field. They carried their helmets.

2. Emma wants to go to music camp. She has to save her birthday money.

3. I was five. I slept with a stuffed elephant.

4. Jacob likes to camp. He does not like getting dirty.

5. There was a storm last night. There was little rain on the ground today.

6. Tom fell off the bike. He learned that racing bikes can be dangerous.
